Eric,

Mr. Gibson stated he believed Im lying because I said Madeline acts frightened around men. But Gibson didn't notice such behavior from the child around him.

I have friends one in particular who saw the child alot we hung out alot. He looked like Kevin.

Madeline would act afraid of men who looked like her dad in the same way she used to act frightened of her father.

not men who look like santa (Gerald).

I forgot to specify.

Thanks, Julia
